

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) EuRIC takes your data seriously

Your privacy is important for us and we take your data seriously.

The new General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") is coming into force on May 25, 2018. The GDPR sets new obligations for organisations that collect and process data while granting individuals new rights regarding how their data is handled. The European Recycling Industries' Confederation (EuRIC) AISBL is committed to safely managing and protecting data of all people with whom we are in contact.

EuRIC can obtain your personal data in the context of interactions with you as a member, a partner, a relevant stakeholder, a supplier of goods or services or a (potential) employee.

You can find our privacy and cookies policies on EuRIC website <https://www.euric-aisbl.eu/>, which provide more details on the type of information that we collect, how it is used and stored and how you can request that your information is updated, corrected or deleted.

We strongly invite you to carefully read through these policies.

If you have questions regarding the processing of your personal data, you can always contact us
